

What's New at Stone Fences!
Monthly Newsletter

March

.....

Check out What's New!

Our monthly newsletter to keep you informed of new tours and what we have planned for 2019!

Jerry Daniels and Hope Brown

We want to welcome you to our monthly newsletter that's designed to keep you informed of what's new and of the exciting tours we have coming up in 2019. We have some great stuff lined up for this year and would love for you to be a part of it!

As always, if anything looks interesting to you or you need more information, please reach out to us at (606) 548-2181 or email us at stonefencetours@yahoo.com

NEW TOURS
COMING IN 2019!

Culinary Tour

Culinary Trail of the Commonwealth

Kentucky's culinary scene was a well-kept secret until showcased on Season 16 of Bravo's Top Chef. Throughout the three-month long broadcast, the diversity of Kentucky's exploding food scene was revealed along with some of our most iconic sites. As we salivated through each episode, an idea emerged to combine what we love to do, show off our beautiful state, with what we live to do-eat. Join us as we travel from Lexington to Louisville to savor the cuisine of the celebrity chefs who served as judges on the show. We will have breakfast at Ouita Michel's Midway Bakery, lunch at Edward Lee's Whiskey Dry, dinner at Annie Pettry's Decca and a cocktail at the famous Seelbach Bar. We will work up an appetite by touring Kentucky landmarks: Keeneland, Makers' Mark and the Muhammad Ali Center. This will be a unique experience for the "foodie" in all of us.

Bourbon Barons

By Jerry and Hope Daniels

During the winter off-season, we have been busy working on adding to our Bourbon Barons tours including a Prohibition tour, Matriarchs of Bourbon tour, and Distillers' Row tour. We have made new changes to the tours and are now giving you the option to try new and different things this year.

Experience Tours

This year we will be bringing to life our Experience Tours with a renewed emphasis on putting you in the driver's seat! These tours will give you the opportunity to be part of the distilling process, completing the Bourbon Trail, completing the Craft Bourbon Trail, investigating paranormal activity, and experiencing Appalachian culture. More detailed information is available on our website or contact us for more information.

By Request Specialty Group Tours

These are tours that are available for groups (minimum 4-6) with at least 2 months advanced notice (if less than 2 months please contact us to see if available). These tours include: Conquering the Trail, The Bourbon Artisan Quest, Distilling at the Ranch, Culinary Trail of the Commonwealth, Dinner on the Vine, Kentucky Crafted: Louisville West, and Kentucky Crafted: Western Kentucky.

Bordeaux in the Bluegrass

We are combining two of our favorites on this tour--wine and historic preservation. McConnell Springs Wine Barrel Tasting event is the annual fundraiser for McConnell Springs, the birthplace of Lexington. In 1775 William McConnell and his fellow frontiersmen camped at a natural spring in the wilderness of the Virginia territory known as Kentucky. Word came from nearby Fort Boonesboro that the first battle of the American Revolution had been fought in Lexington, Massachusetts. In honor of the battle, the group named their future settlement "Lexington." Over the years, McConnell Springs--a National Registered Historic Site--was the location of a mill, a gunpowder factory, a distillery, and a dairy farm. Eventually the site was abandoned but not forgotten. Citizens' efforts to reclaim McConnell Springs for its historical and natural value began in 1993 with the founding of The Friends of McConnell Springs.

In conjunction with McConnell Springs we offer tickets and transportation to a selection of 4 of central Kentucky's wineries to sample wine that is ready for bottling. You will have the opportunity to meet the winemakers and discuss their favorite subject--wine. Enjoy the fruits of their labor and leave the driving to us. Twenty dollars from every ticket sale is donated to McConnell Springs to support historic preservation and educational activities.

Acknowledgments

As we enter our second year of business we would like to thank a few people who helped us get our dream off the ground. Matthew Kirby is our website guru and gives us creative advice. Lowell Arnett of L. Grey Photography honored us with his incredible photography that graces our website. Please check out his site www.lgreysphotography.com

Contact Information

If you have any questions or need more information about the new tours listed on this newsletter, please feel free to reach out to us at the number below or email us anytime!

(606) 548-2181

stonefencestours@yahoo.com

READ MORE ON OUR WEBSITE